

RHEO KNEE[®] and RHEO KNEE[®] XC

RHEO KNEE is an advanced microprocessor-controlled knee that continually adapts to the user's walking style. Magnetorheologic technology enables the RHEO KNEE to be highly responsive and intuitive, reducing energy consumption. RHEO KNEE also has enhanced stability control options available for improved safety. RHEO KNEE XC provides a higher activity user additional functionality to support them in different environments.

RHEO KNEE[®] Program

Workday eLearning Course

In this program, you will find all related courses to the RHEO KNEE, RHEO KNEE XC and Össur Logic App. The Össur Logic App is available for connection to the RHEO KNEE. It features a user friendly interface for ease of programming RHEO to suit the individual user. Training exercises can also be accessed in the App to assist with set-up and user training.

After completing this course series, you will be able to understand the working principle of Rheo Knee, the features and benefits of both Rheo Knee and Rheo Knee XC, their technical specifications and user profiles. You will also be able to use the Össur Logic App to customise Rheo Knee for optimal functionality and safety for the individual user.
