

Proprio Foot®

Product interest form

Endurance

Reduce the energy needed for walking

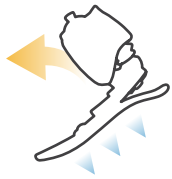

Symmetry

Walk more naturally on different surfaces

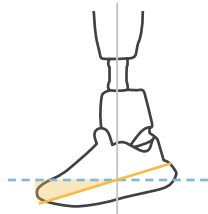

Safety

Reduce the chance of trips and falls

FEATURES

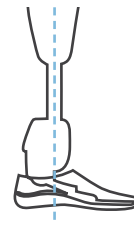

Pro-Flex Dynamics

Terrain Adaptation

Active Toe Lift

Auto-Alignment

Relax Mode & Chair Exit

To guide the discussion with your prosthetist, please indicate your personal mobility goals and add your notes and questions below.

- Improve endurance
- Change footwear easily
- Navigate stairs and ramps
- Stand up more naturally
- Reduce trips and falls
- Improve sitting comfort
- More Symmetrical gait

My notes and questions:

FOR PROSTHETISTS

Click or scan here to request a demo and an Össur Representative will be in touch

Reimbursement

Is Proprio Foot covered by insurance?

Proprio Foot is PDAC approved for L5973. When certain criteria are met, Proprio Foot is considered medically necessary by Medicare and most private insurance payers. Talk to your prosthetic provider for more information.