NEW EVIDENCE

Adding Bracing + Exercise Improves OA Outcomes

The PROP OA study is an independent, multicentre, randomised controlled trial assessing the clinical effectiveness of knee bracing in 466 people with symptomatic knee osteoarthritis, with outcomes measured beyond six months.

At six months, the brace group showed:

- ✓ Better KOOS-5 scores
- ✓ Better pain outcomes
- ✓ Improved daily function

One of the Össur braces featured in the study:

Unloader One®

Unloader One® is a lightweight, low profile knee brace designed to help relieve osteoarthritis knee pain and improve mobility while being worn. SmartDosing® dials allow easy adjustment, while the simple two buckle design supports quick application and everyday movement.
